6. If any provision of this agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the parties agree that the remaining provisions continue to be valid and enforceable. Further, the parties agree that if a court finds that any provision of this agreement is in-valid or unenforceable, but that by limiting such pro-vision it would become valid and enforceable, then such provision shall be deemed to be written, construed, and enforced in that manner. It is the intent of the parties to provide as broad an indemnification as possible under the laws of the state of New Jersey, as well as any applicable federal laws or regulations. In the event that any aspect of this agreement is deemed unenforceable, the court is empowered to modify these terms in a manner that affords the maximum amount of indemnification allowed under New Jersey law.
